Mr. Gyanesh Chaudhary, MD & CEO Vikram Solar Received Commendations as emerging leader

Mr. Gyanesh Chaudhary, MD & CEO Vikram Solar, the man behind the exceptional growth that country's leading Solar EPC and module manufacturing company has scaled, was awarded with the title of 'Emerging Leader' by esteemed Calcutta Management Association (CMA).

Being an affiliate of All India Management Association (AIMA), which is the national apex body of the management profession in the country, Calcutta Management Association has always focused its efforts to create new platforms to encourage and recognize unique, innovative, and successful management practices that have instilled inspiration in others.

CMA Management Excellence Awards 2017, which is honoring Mr. Gyanesh Chaudhary as the emerging leader, has been carefully identifying exceptional practices in management since 2015. And being a promoter of ethical, smart, and innovative management choices, Mr. Gyanesh Chaudhary has made the perfect candidate for this year's recognition event.

Mr. Gyanesh Chaudhary, MD & CEO, Vikram Solar Pvt. Ltd., shared on the occasion, "Inspiring the organization through transparency, effective decision making, and communication has always been a leader's duty for me all along. And in pursuit of growth and recognition for the company and my talented team, I have always followed those ideals. And now, in this proud moment, I believe my win is actually a win for all the members of my team, the close knitted Vikram family".
