

VIKRAM SOLAR LIMITED

(Formerly known as Vikram Solar Private Limited)

Whistle Blower Policy/ Vigil Mechanism

The objective of a Whistle Blower mechanism is to provide an avenue to address concerns, in line with the policy of Vikram Solar Limited (VSL) (Formerly known as Vikram Solar Private Limited) to the highest possible standards of ethical, moral and legal business conduct and its commitment to open communication, as well as timely redressal of concerns and disclosures to build and strengthen a culture of transparency and trust in the company.

Section 177 (9) of the Companies Act, 2013 mandates the following classes of companies to constitute a vigil mechanism –

- a) Every listed company;
- b) Every other company which accepts deposits from the public;
- c) Every company which has borrowed money from banks and public financial institutions in excess of Rs. 50 crores.

Scope

- a. The Whistle blower's scope is that of a reporting party with reliable information. They are not required or expected to act as investigators or finders of facts, nor would they determine the appropriate corrective or remedial action that may be warranted in a given case.
- b. Whistle blowers should not act on their own in conducting any investigative activities, nor do they have a right to participate in any investigative activities other than as requested by the Chairman of the Audit Committee or the Investigators.
- c. Protected Disclosure will be appropriately dealt with by the Chairman of the Audit Committee, as the case may be.

Disclosure

The following serious concerns having adverse impact on business and organizational values can be brought to the notice of ombudsperson:

- Integrity violation

- Serious Process malfunctioning
- Harassment or Victimization of individuals or a group

Escalation Procedure

Level – 1 - Ombudsperson

The ombudsperson is a confidential resource for all employees of the company. His role is that of a neutral that advocates not for a specific individual, but for equity, fair processes, and compliance with the company's policy and procedure. He would be authorised by the Management of the company for the purpose of receiving all complaints under this policy and ensuring appropriate action. The name of such ombudsperson shall be notified separately. The authority of the ombudsperson shall be as under:

- In exercising his/ her duties, the ombudsperson will be independent of any official, department, office, bureau, or other organizational entity.
- The ombudsperson shall have the right, on any matter pertaining to the exercise of his or her duties, to direct access to any staff member or contractual employee and to the senior Management. All staff members, contractual employees, and vendor personnel are expected to cooperate with the ombudsperson and to make available all information pertinent to matters he or she is reviewing.
- The ombudsperson shall have access to all records relevant to the exercise of his or her duties. In the event of a dispute regarding access to records, the matter will be referred to Mr. Rajendra Kumar Parakh, Chief Financial Officer (CFO)

Any employee, in the first place can write to the ombudsperson at rajendra.parakh@vikramsolar.com of any of the unethical/ inappropriate practices, if any, happening in the Organization. In case an employee is not willing to write, he/ she can also meet the ombudsperson and explain the case. The ombudsperson will forward the complaint to the Chairman of the Audit Committee for resolution of the complaints.

Employees at any given time are advised and expected to avoid making general, broad and sweeping statements or issues based on speculation. Disclosures if found to be frivolous, baseless, malicious or reported otherwise than in good faith will be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action.

Level – 2 – Audit Committee

Audit committee is there to assist employees of the company and resolve issues pertaining to unethical practices by assuming one or more roles as active listener, facilitator, or mediator.

All the mails and complaints to ombudsperson shall be tracked by this Audit committee. In case of verbal complaints, it shall be the responsibility of the ombudsperson to report the 'disclosure' to the Audit committee. Standards of practice of the Audit committee shall include:

Conduct the enquiry in a fair, and unbiased manner

- Ensure complete fact-finding
- Maintain strict Confidentiality
- Decide on the outcome of the investigation, whether an improper practice has been committed and if so by whom
- Recommend an appropriate course of action-suggested disciplinary action, including dismissal (if required), and preventive measures
- Minute committee deliberations and document the final report.

Confidentiality

- The ombudsperson/ Audit committee will keep all dealings with persons who seek their services strictly confidential, except to the extent that the person seeking assistance consents to disclosure for the purpose of the performance of the duties specified. However, the ombudsperson/ Audit committee may, at their sole discretion, break confidentiality if the physical safety of any person is threatened.
- All information and records compiled by the ombudsperson/ audit committee shall be for the use of the ombudsperson/ audit committee and for no other purpose than the functions of the office of the ombudsperson/ audit committee. Any reports of the ombudsperson/ audit committee shall be prepared in a manner that will preserve the right to confidentiality of the persons who have brought matters to the attention of, or provided information to, the ombudsperson/ audit committee. Details of specific cases may be disclosed only with the concurrence of such persons.

Disqualifications

- a. While it will be ensured that genuine Whistle blowers are accorded complete protection from any kind of unfair treatment as herein set out, any abuse of this protection will warrant disciplinary action.
- b. Protection under this Policy would not mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by a Whistle blower knowing it to be false or bogus or with a mala fide intention.

- c. Whistle blowers, who make three or more Protected Disclosures, which have been subsequently found to be mala fide, frivolous, baseless, malicious, or reported otherwise than in good faith, will be disqualified from reporting further Protected Disclosures under this Policy. In respect of such Whistle blowers, the Company/Audit Committee would reserve its right to take/recommend appropriate disciplinary action.

Protection

No unfair treatment will be meted out to an employee by virtue of his/her having reported a disclosure under this policy. As a policy, the company condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice against the employee. Complete protection will be given to the Whistle Blower against any unfair employment practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal to promotion or the alike including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct his right to continue or perform duties. The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential to the extent possible and permitted under law.

The Company reserves its right to amend or modify this policy in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason whatsoever with prior approval of the Board of Directors of the Company.
